TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

This matter came on for consideration on the State of Tennessee's complaint, motion for a temporary restraining order and supporting papers. For good cause shown, this Court GRANTS the State of Tennessee's motion for a temporary restraining order in the following particulars. The Defendants are hereby ordered to restrain from:

- (1) Representing or implying that they are a corporation certified by the State of Tennessee without a certificate or authority to do business in this state;
- (2) Representing that goods or services have approval, characteristics, uses or benefits that they do not have;
- (3) Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are not;
- (4) Representing that a consumer transaction confers or involves rights, remedies or obligations that it does not have or involve or which are prohibited by law;

(5) Using or employing a chain referral sales plan in connection with the sale or offer to sell of goods, merchandise, or anything of value;

(6) Engaging in any practice which is deceptive to the consumer or to any other person;

(7) Engaging in any credit service business unless in full compliance with the Tennessee Credit Services Businesses Act;

(8) Adversely affecting Tennessee consumers' credit reports;

(9) Continuing to collect the monthly allotment amount for service members who purchased computers in Tennessee;

(10) Drawing funds from or debiting consumer's bank accounts, including, but not limited to those accounts service members were required to establish at First Citizen's Bank in Kentucky for purposes of the payroll allotment;

(11) Extending "open-end" credit when the initial credit limit is the same as the initial amount being financed and the consumers are not advised that repeated transactions are allowed;

(12) Selling computers to the consuming public without providing to the purchaser copies of all documents or literature used or shown during the sale process, including, but not limited to, the purchase agreement, the finance application and documents pertaining to military payroll allotment;

(13) Representing to purchasing consumers that the purchase price of the computer is the full amount the consumer will pay for that computer if the consumer is required to pay additional amounts such as interest or finance charges; and

(14) Using copies of consumers identification and bank debit cards in any way that may put the consumer at risk of identity theft.

The Court enters this temporary restraining order, without bond, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-18-104(a)(4).

This temporary restraining order takes effect prospectively from the moment Defendants Rome Financing Co., Stuart Jordan and Britlee, Inc. d/b/a Laptoyz Electronics are served with this Order or are otherwise informed of this Order, whichever is sooner. The order will take effect against each defendant immediately after that defendant is served.

This matter is set for hearing on _____, 2005, at _____ upon the State of Tennessee's application for a temporary injunction.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this _____ day of September, 2005, at _____.
